

WASHINGTON MUSEUM OF RUSSIAN POETRY AND MUSIC
FOUNDED 1997

ALLEY OF RUSSIAN POETS and COMPOSERS, WASHINGTON, D.C.
FOUNDED 2003

WASHINGTON TSVETAeva BONFIRES
FOUNDED 1996

Dr. ULI ZISLIN,
Curator, Collector, Songwriter
www.museum.zislin.com 301/942-2728 museum@zislin.com

Museum is open daily by appointment
(on Veirs Mill Rd., Rockville, MD)

Museum also organizes and holds:
Annual bonfires in the memory of Marina Tsvetaeva in Greater Washington Area; and Field visits to “Alley of the Russian Poets and Composers” in Washington, DC.

Sergey Stukalov © 2002

All of our 30 exhibits could become the foundation of a new *American Museum & Research Center of Russian Culture.

This project, aiming at improving American knowledge of Russian Culture (including, but not limited to literature, performing arts and philosophy) will be based on the original Zislin's collection that is currently presented at the Washington Museum of Russian Poetry and Music.

(www.museum.zislin.com)

Washington Museum of Russian Poetry and Music is non-profit organization as part of American Association for Russian Language, Culture, and Education

Donations are tax-deductible.

www.museum.zislin.com